

PTA Welcome

Have you considered joining the PTA?

As parents who already lead busy lives, wondering how you could possibly fit in one more thing...Helping the PTA doesn't have to mean hours and hours of commitment, there are more ways than one that you can help out in this group.

Helping out is a great way to feel part of the school. School does not need to be just a place you send your children, it's a community we all belong to.

Some benefits of getting involved in the PTA include:

Meeting other parents

Getting to know the school leaders

Finding out first what's going on at school

Being more a part of your child's life at school

The PTA is not just about fundraising, we aim to provide opportunities for all families in the community to be involved in the life of the school, as well as support in providing additional facilities and opportunities for the school community. The PTA can be a good source of information and support, if you'd prefer to talk to a parent first about an issue, concern or an idea you have relating to school.

As parents you may choose to join the 'Friends of the PTA' being part of this group you will receive emails about PTA projects and you can help as often as you're able in someway. There is a variety of projects during a school year, both big and small, so any help is appreciated.

Our School PTA is a sub-committee of the Pillans Point School BOT. As a school we like to see the PTA working along side the school staff and the BOT, hence we all come under the umbrella of the school governing body.

The main objectives of the PTA include:

Encouraging and supporting communication between families, teachers, school leadership, staff, and the Board of Trustees.

Providing opportunities for all families to be involved in the life of the school.

Raising funds, through school events and promotions, to supplement identified needs within the school, to support better teaching and learning opportunities for children.

Should you wish to join the PTA or be a part of the Friends of the PTA, please email the PTA at pta@pillanspoint.school.nz
